Press Release

The FJM new iPad Lock is an iPad Case, iPad Stand and iPad Lock all in one!

Secure the iPad with a flexible all-in-one innovative iPad case, iPad stand and iPad lock.

Seattle, WA, October 2, 2013: With today's technology, mobile electronics with constant connectivity such as Smart phones and now iPads have become more common place. Now with the new FJM iPad Case/Stand/Lock, the iPad can be taken everywhere, on the go, with no worries of a stolen iPad or concern over the iPad slipping/dropping during use. The tough foam-lined ABS plastic case protects the iPda and the stand/handle will rotate and tilt to unlimited positions for best viewing on a tabletop. The handle also will loop over the hand to become a natural extension of the arm for those on the go. The 78" long vinyl coated airplane cable has a high security 9 pin lock on it to secure the iPad during temporary absence. The case allows access to all ports, even the rear camera.

Features

- Foam-lined, tough ABS plastic case.
- Stand allows unlimited positions with rotation and tilt for best viewing position.
- Handle loops over the hand and becomes a natural extension of the arm with no fear of dropping.
- Handle also allows it to be carried as a briefcase.
- Stand/Handle snaps shut
- Easy to install or remove
